

SPECIAL SESSIONS:

SESSION B

-Biblioteca Rilliana-

July 7th, 2003

15:30

Presentation of the book:

"Il Calamaio del Padre Inquisitore"

by Renzo Rabboni

At this philological session will be presented some historical documents of 1741 found at the Estense Library. This discovery allows to reconstruct the history of the affaire Crudeli, which is well known as the dividing line between temporal and spiritual powers.

SESSION C

-Pretura di Poppi-

July 7th, 2003

18:30

Presentation of the:

"International Historical Court"

The Municipality of Poppi and the Institute of Historical Studies Tommaso Crudeli inaugurate the International Historical Court, which is devoted to the investigation of such legal cases (older than 100 years) where the most basic human liberties were denied. The Institution – based in the old magistrate's courthouse of Poppi- is inspired by the Universal Declaration of Human Rights. Its objective is the accurate reconstruction of historical legal cases and the identification of responsibilities.
